

Military and Veterans Affairs Program

Parsons places high value and takes pride in its veterans, reservists, and guardsmen. Here are some key highlights of our industry-leading MILVET program.

Enhanced Benefits for Reservists and Guard Members

Area	Coverage	Highlights
Activation – bridge compensation	Yes 18 months every 5 years	Our new industry-leading bridge compensation and benefits plan also covers those already on activation orders.
Activation – bridge benefits
Annual training support	Yes 4 weeks per year	We provide Reserve and Guard Member employees up to 4 weeks of paid time off per year to complete annual training requirements.
USERRA compliance	Yes	We aggressively follow and work to exceed USERRA standards.

Veteran Recruitment Focus

Area	Coverage	Highlights
Dedicated military and veterans affairs team	Yes	We have a dedicated MILVET director and coordinator, who advance initiatives focused on veteran recruitment, community, and retention across the organization.
Active-duty transition internships	Yes	Using the DOD Career Skills Program (CSP) framework and nonprofit veteran-transition organization partnerships, we actively seek to provide internship opportunities to service members in order to help facilitate their transition into the civilian workforce and gain valuable industry-focused work experience.
Recognized as a military-friendly organization	Yes	We have received multiple ESGR Patriot awards for our support of the Guard and Reserve.
Career mapping assistance for veterans	Yes	We have trained recruiters to assist service members with career mapping and planning.
Transition assistance advice, TAPS visits, and resume workshops	Yes	We proactively reach out to TAPS managers across the globe to determine how we can best engage and support transitioning service members.
TRICARE supplemental insurance	Yes	We offer TRICARE supplemental insurance for qualifying veterans, reservists, and guardsmen that reimburses a percentage of the TRICARE deductible.

Veteran Retention Initiatives

Area	Coverage	Highlights
Company military and veterans affairs program executive commitment and support	Yes	Our MILVET program is guided by an executive steering committee, consisting of top leaders from across the organization.
Focus on veteran community-building inside the organization	Yes	Our internal social media site hosts RallyPoint, a group dedicated to supporting the needs of the veteran community at Parsons.
Focus on veteran peer and mentoring support inside the organization	Yes	We are starting up the Battle Buddy Program in 2020 to formally structure our peer and mentoring program.

To learn more, please visit us at www.parsons.com/military.